SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 7.

CONGRESSIONAL PAY.—A bill has been offered in the House of Representatives, to repeal that part of the salary law still unrepealed, which allows members of Congress to draw their pay monthly from the beginning of their term, and before the meeting of Congress. The Philadelphia Inquirer submits the following views on the subject, saying: "The result of the late act has been that members of the present Congress who had not even been to Washington between March 4 and the beginning of December of last year, were drawing their salaries with great punctuality, so that when Congress actually assembled and the back-pay business came under discussion, as well as of the propriety of the advanced rate of compensation, it was found that nearly every member had pocketed his pay up to the month of December. In the case of one Congressman who had been elected to fill a vacancy caused by death, it was shown that he had not only taken the pay for the interval between the time of his election and the meeting of Congress, but had appropriated the amount which ought to have been paid to his deceased predecessor."

TRYING TO RIDE INTO THE WHITE HOUSE.—Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, as Lieut. Hurley was passing the President's House, he saw a man on horseback on the portico, trying to ride into the front door. The officer took the adventurous horseman into custody, and turned him over to the 4th precinct station-house, where he gave him the name of Joseph G. Sypher. On his person was found a loaded pistol, and after being searched, he was locked up and kept until this morning, when he was conveyed to the Police Court and charged with carrying concealed weapons. After hearing the case, the court imposed a fine of $50. It is stated that Sypher is from Cincinnati, Ohio, and has been hanging about the Executive Mansion for some time, and has lately been denied admission there, and yesterday determined to make a tour of the house on horseback. He had no excuse to offer. It is thought by the officers that he is slightly deranged.—Washington Star.
